

THE ALL CREATURES TOUR

Herriot's Yorkshire, seen properly.

*A luxury private day into the living landscape of the real James Herriot — the incomparable
Yorkshire Dales, at your own unhurried pace.*

FROM £985 • PER GROUP

• ALWAYS PRIVATE, NEVER SHARED

Step into the world the real James Herriot knew.

The All Creatures Tour carries you into the incredibly beautiful Yorkshire Dales National Park — the same stone-walled dales and open fells that shaped Herriot's world and now play host to the worldwide blockbuster filmed here in recent years.

A landscape this vast, laced with narrow lanes and challenging roads, could feel overwhelming to explore alone. Our tours make this glorious country enjoyable, accessible and comfortable — and quietly exciting from the first mile to the last.

We don't simply drive you past pretty views. We take you to the very places you'll recognise, and to remote corners few visitors ever reach — all in a single, beautifully paced day.

"A big place, made intimate — shown the way a local would."

THE NATIONAL PARK

840

square miles of protected dales, fells and villages.

+234 square miles larger than Greater London.

WORKING COUNTRY

Living dales, still farmed the old way — the backdrop to every mile of the day.

More than scenery. The real thing.

Five things set this day apart — the reasons guests remember it long after the last dale slips from view.

On-screen, up close

We top-load the day with the famous filming locations any fan will almost always recognise on sight.

The Herriot connection

Grassington doubles as Darrowby — find Skeldale House, the veterinary office from the show, and much more.

Breathtaking scenery

840 square miles of stone-walled dales, remote valleys and dramatic, ever-changing skies.

Made for mixed groups

Just as rewarding whether you've seen every episode or none at all — perfect for families of differing tastes.

Entirely, genuinely private

Your party only — never shared with strangers. The whole day unfolds at your pace, in your way, from the moment we collect you.

Every detail, quietly taken care of.

A private tour is defined by the small freedoms. Here is how the day is shaped around you.

We come to you

No start point to find. We collect you from any accommodation in York — or much further afield, if pre-arranged.

Flexible start times

A little longer in bed, an unhurried breakfast. Within reason, we happily adjust the start to suit you.

Lunch, your call

An ancient pub, a charming tea room, or no stop at all. We suggest, you choose — and simply message when you're ready.

At your own pace

Your valuable holiday time belongs to you. Linger where you like; press on when you're ready.

Mercedes-Benz V-Class. Always dry, warm and comfortable — travel in quiet, spacious ease whatever the sky is doing.

YOUR DAY, YOUR GROUP

Space for up to seven — and space to breathe.

A day in All Creatures Country.

Timings flex to your wishes — but a typical day runs something like this, west into the Dales and quietly home again.

9:00–10:30

Morning pickup

Collected from your York accommodation and welcomed to the day ahead.

Morning

West into the Dales

A brief comfort stop at a lovely point of interest as the fells open up around us.

Late morning

Grassington — the real Darrowby

The village that plays Darrowby, home to Skeldale House and instantly familiar corners at every turn.

Midday

Lunch, whenever suits

Dropped at the pub or tea room of your choosing; a simple message brings us back when you're ready.

Afternoon

The remote Dales

Tucked-away valleys and very special places, rarely explored and all the more memorable for it.

~6:30pm

Home to York

Back around half past six — earlier or later, within reason, whatever your day requires.

The freedom of a day that's only yours.

Because the vehicle is yours alone, the day bends to your group — however you like to travel.

Flexible itinerary

Shape the route around what your group loves most.

Comfort breaks

Stop whenever you wish or need to, within reason.

Explore on foot

We get out regularly to walk and take in the air.

Leave the planning, the driving and the navigating to us — and simply watch Yorkshire roll by.

One unforgettable day

No overnight stay required — though you may well wish there were.

Timed to your train

Pickup matched to your arrival; return matched to your booking home.

One price. Your whole party.
